

2005 CHEA Almanac of External Quality Review

The most comprehensive source of information about participants in external quality review of higher education in the United States. Contains information about accrediting organizations, state higher education offices and the federal government.

The purpose of the Almanac is to:

- Provide information about the major participants involved in external quality review;
- Promote understanding of external quality review;
- Encourage information sharing among the various participants; and
- Develop a research database on quality review procedures in higher education.

Copies are available at a reduced membership rate of $55 per copy. Non-members can order the book for $75 for one copy or $60 per copy for quantities of two or more. Books will be shipped when payment is received.
