REGIONAL AND COUNTRY-BASED QUALITY STANDARDS:

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Prof. Nadia Badrawi,
Past president, ANQAHE
Aims of the session

- What are recent developments?
- What do we learn when examining various approaches?
Structure of the session

Chair: Nadia Badrawi: ANQAHE

Members representing the region
○ Concepcion Pijano: APQN
○ Peter Okebukkola: AfriQAN
○ Tia Loukkola: EUA

Members representing countries
○ Michal Neumann: Israel country
○ Zong Wa: China country
Regional development of Standards in the Arab region

- Academic reference standards for some discipline
- Quality Assurance Framework
- Core Standard for accreditation of higher education institution
- Generic qualification framework
Academic Reference standards in the Arab Region

- Active program between British Council and Egypt, Palestine, Tunisia, Morocco and Syria to develop common academic reference standards in Medicine, Engineering, Arab Language and Computer Science (2004-2008)
- Organizing many workshops in the region (Bahrain, Syria, Tunisia, Egypt, Sudan and Morocco)
- Working with the AArU to disseminate these standards
Results of developing Academic Reference Standards

- Are the Standards developed by these committee are used?
- Build a good relation between British, Scottish and Arab QAA
Quality Assurance Framework

- Developed by ANQAHE in 2008
- Used by many QAA
- Is it beneficial?
Standards for accreditation Higher Education institution

- 11 core standards developed in 2008 by ANQAHE
- Used in the 12 countries that developed QAA
Generic qualification framework

Developed in 2012
Not yet implemented
Thank you

Dr. Nadia Badrawi
nadia@badrawi.com
www.anqahe.org