The CHEA 2011 Almanac of External Quality Review is the most comprehensive source of information about accreditation and external quality review of higher education in the United States.

The Almanac contains information about accrediting organizations, state higher education offices, federal and state roles in quality review and the recognition of accrediting organizations. Contents include:

- An overview of U.S. accreditation and recognition.
- CHEA information and resource materials.
- A directory of accrediting organizations recognized by CHEA, the U.S. Department of Education or both.
- A directory of State Higher Education Executive Officers (SHEEOs).

The CHEA 2011 Almanac of External Quality Review is available in print and electronic versions. Copies are $85 (print or electronic), postage included. To order your copy of the Almanac, please use the online order form found on the CHEA Website or call (202) 955-6126.