2012 CHEA Summer Workshop

Accreditation Today and Challenges of Tomorrow

Thursday, June 21

6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. Reception

Friday, June 22

7:30 a.m. – 8:00 a.m. Registration and Continental Breakfast

8:00 a.m. Welcome and Overview

8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. Congress and Accreditation

Issues such as credit hour, state authorization and public accountability are part of the ongoing attention to accreditation by Congress. How are these issues viewed in Congress and what action may result?

9:15 a.m. – 10:15 a.m. Accreditation, the NACIQI Report and Looking Toward Reauthorization of the Higher Education Act

What are the plans of the U.S. Department of Education with regard to accreditation following the release of the National Advisory Committee on Institutional Quality and Integrity (NACIQI) report and preparing for reauthorization? What role for accreditation is envisioned?

10:30 a.m. – 10:45 a.m. Break

10:45 a.m. – Noon State Authorization and Accreditation

The Presidents' Forum, working with the Council of State Governments, is developing a "model state reciprocity agreement" as a means for states to acknowledge each other's work and decisions with regard to authorizing institutions to operate. This agreement may assist in dealing with the recent requirement of the U.S. Department of Education that institutions are to be approved in all states or territories in which they serve students. What are the implications of this effort for accreditation?

Friday, June 22 (continued)

12:15 p.m. – 1:15 p.m. Lunch and Update on Federal Policy and Accreditation

1:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. Life Since Academically Adrift: Student Performance and Responsibilities of Accreditation

Various national studies have addressed the extent to which college contributes or does not contribute to student learning. This is sometimes accompanied by a view that accreditation has a responsibility here. Is there a responsibility and, if so, what is it?

2:45 p.m. – 3:45 p.m. Data Collection and Accreditation: Working More Efficiently and Effectively

The Institute for Evidence-Based Change, a California-based company that is now operating nationally, has developed a series of tools and services to assist institutions in developing evidence for student achievement. How might these tools and services assist institutions and programs as they undertake accreditation reviews?

4:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. Outside-the-System Credits and Degrees

New types of credentialing within higher education are taking hold in colleges and universities with efforts at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Stanford, Carnegie-Mellon, and the Straighterline agreement with the Educational Testing Service and the Council for Aid to Education. What are the implications of this development for accreditation?
