The IACBE accredits business programs that lead to degrees at the associate, bachelor's, master's, and doctoral levels in institutions of higher education worldwide that grant bachelor's and/or graduate degrees. The IACBE does not accredit business programs of institutions of higher education that offer only associate degrees in business. (2011)

CHEA Recognition Information

History:                    No prior recognition by CHEA

Most Recent Recognition Action

Date:                        CHEA Board of Directors Meeting, January 24, 2011

Decision:                 Recognition for up to ten years

Summary of CHEA's Most Recent Recognition Review

The CHEA Committee on Recognition and the Board of Directors reviewed the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Accreditation (IACBE). The review was based on the six CHEA recognition standards that require an accrediting organization to show that its accreditation process advances academic quality, demonstrates accountability, encourages self-scrutiny and planning, employs fair and appropriate procedures, demonstrates ongoing review of practice, and that it possesses sufficient resources to carry out its accreditation processes (2006 CHEA Recognition Policy and Procedures, Paragraphs 12A-12F, pp. 5-8.)

IACBE demonstrated that it meets these standards and that its accreditation process is consistent with the quality, improvement and accountability expectations that CHEA has established.

The CHEA recognition policy requires that an accrediting organization undergo a recognition review least every 10 years and submit two interim reports.

*Effective April 2017, IACBE changed its name from the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education to the International Accreditation Council for Business Education.
