Summary of Prior Recognition Decisions

CHEA Board of Directors Meeting: January 24, 2011: The CHEA Board of Directors awarded initial recognition for the maximum term of 10 years. The CHEA recognition policy requires that an accrediting organization submit two Interim Reports during the 10-year term of recognition.

The review was based on the six CHEA recognition standards that require an accrediting organization to show that its accreditation process advances academic quality, demonstrates accountability, encourages self-scrutiny and planning, employs fair and appropriate procedures, demonstrates ongoing review of practice, and that it possesses sufficient resources to carry out its accreditation processes (2006 CHEA Recognition Policy and Procedures, Paragraphs 12A-12F, pp. 5-8.)

IACBE demonstrated that it meets these standards and that its accreditation process is consistent with the quality, improvement and accountability expectations that CHEA has established.

*Effective April 2017, IACBE changed its name from the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education to the International Accreditation Council for Business Education.
